

KISS ME NOW

Music/Text by: Mckinley Black

Kiss me now
'cause I can't wait til tomorrow
I can't wait 'til your love is in my hands

Kiss me now
'cause your kiss will soothe my sorrow
I don't know why but I know you will understand

Kiss me now
'cause I can't wait anymore
Kiss me now
bring your love and your poetry to my door

I want to be free in your arms naked and vulnerable like a newborn child I want to feel your love pulling me close to your breast your gentle caress

I want to lose myself in my breath i want to lose myself in pure innocence
I want to lose myself on a warm feather bed I want to lay my body down and close my eyes and dream

Kiss me now

Kiss me now
'cause I cant wait anymore
Kiss me now
