

SEASHELLS AND ROSES

Music/Text by: Mckinley Black

Show me the way to your ocean show me the way to your shore show me the way, come what may
'cause I don't want to wait anymore

I don't want to wait anymore
I don't want to wait anymore
show me the way, come what may
'cause I don't want to wait anymore

I see the sun shining where you are
and I see a path of seashells and roses
leading me to your door

When the moon shines a light
in the dark of the night
my love for you grows even more

Things in life just happen you don't know why or what for I could spend all my days sorting through all the ways but I don't want to wait anymore

I don't want to wait anymore
I don't want to wait anymore
I want to know which way to go and I don't want to wait anymore

I see the sun shining where you are
and I see a path of seashells and roses
leading me to your door

When the moon shines a light
in the dark of the night
my love for you grows even more

VERSE:

C/G Fmaj7/C

C/G Fmaj7/C

C/G Fmaj7/C

F G

Note: To keep it simple and not have to name fancy chords, you just have to lift your second finger on both the C/G and Fmaj7/C chord to get the second sound of the chord in the song.

CHORUS:

AM Fmaj7/C F G

AM Fmaj7/C Fmaj7/C

F G

Am

G

Am Dm7/A

Fmaj/C/B/A/B C/G

Note: Walk the "C" down and then up again on the Fmaj7 between "grows" and "even more" with "more" ending on C/G
